

Musical fun on the high seas

It's yo-ho-ho and a barrel of fun for these two sisters as they walk the plank while treading the boards next week.

Martina and Josie Clement star in Carmel Players' production of Pirates of Penzance in Silsden Methodist Church.

Josie, 19, right, of Lothersdale, plays Ruth after appearing as Lady Jane in the Players' 1994 show Patience.

Martina, 17, who plays Mabel, has stepped up from the Players chorus but is no stranger to leading roles with other groups.

She performed in Holy Family School musicals and Shakespearean plays and took musicals Robin Of Sherwood and Anything Goes to Denmark with Ilkley Upstagers. Martina now takes theatre studies and hopes to audition for a singing course at the Royal College of Music. She will play Eliza Doolittle in Holy Family School's production of My Fair Lady next January.

The girls' mother Angela Clement is again MD for Pirates, the Carmel Players' annual Gilbert and Sullivan show, running Tuesday-Saturday. Tickets from Knowles Estate Agents, Silsden.

CRAVEN HERALD AND PIONEER — FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1995

WALKING the plank and swashbuckling on the high seas comes to Silsden next week when the Carmel Players present the Pirate of Penzance. The drama group holds the Jolly Roger from Tuesday October 24 at Silsden Methodist Hall, and the Gilbert and Sullivan classic runs until October 28. Tickets are available from Knowles estate agents in Silsden, from Kris Hopkins on 01535 654890, or Joan Ayres on 01535 636929. Picture by Herald photographer Stephen Garnett shows John Peet (centre) being held to ransom by, from left, Malcolm Cox, Chris Kates, and Rick Bielby. 42/5071/4a